ACTIVITIES

Homecoming was held on September 17. The activities began with the parade in the early afternoon, the winning float being the eighth grade float entitled, "Sabertooth Football". Following this the Tigers conquered the Whitehall Trojans with a final score of 19-0.

The day's events were capped off with the Homecoming Dance. The music for the dance was furnished by the Barons. The Homecoming Queen was Nellie Fisher.

FHA CARNIVAL

A Big Turnout

"Hurry! It starts in half an hour!"

March 10, 1967 opened the scene for the annual FHA Carnival. A wide variety of activities was offered: the jail, dart throwing, fortune telling and, for a few solemn moments, the hitch'n post. Every fifteen minutes a cake was auctioned off in the cake walk. It proved to be an enjoyable evening for all.

The Senior Class Play, "Twelve Angry Jurors", was held on March 17. The play is an adaptation of Reginald Rose's television play, "Twelve Angry Men".

The play concerns the reactions of the various jurors to a boy on trial for murder and also to each other. The major conflict is between Juror No. 8, who seeks justice, and Juror No. 3, who seeks personal revenge.

A MHS first — The "Alligator".

The 1967 Junior-Senior banquet was held in the Bozeman Hotel. The theme was "Song Of My Heart". The banquet was opened by a welcome to the Seniors from the Junior Class, after which a delicious meal of hot beef with all the trimmings was served. The Juniors then read the prophecy of each Senior and said farewell to the Senior Class.

Following the banquet was the Prom. Sally Batchelder was crowned Prom Queen, and her attendants were Elaine Skinner and Carolyn Rider.

Friday morning, April 21, the Manhattan Senior Class of 1967 boarded a bus with the Mammoth Motor Inn as their destination. The occasion was the traditional Educational Tour, better known as the Senior "Sneak Trip".

After a short stop at Chico Hot Springs, the Seniors arrived at Mammoth in the early afternoon. Keeping Mr. and Mrs. Russell McMurray, their chaperones, busy was no problem. As 150 Girl Scouts were also staying at Mammoth, there was never a dull moment.

JOURNALISM

For the past three years, interested students have been publishing a paper for the students of Manhattan High School. Typists have been scarce, imagination has been sparse, news old, age and experience young and new each year. However, what was lacking in experience and capabilities was made up by determination, patience, and tenacity.

It is the hope of the students that MHS will have a bigger and better journalism class in the future.

The Freshman year in high school began with the Freshmen Initiation, an activity enjoyed by everyone except the Freshmen. Following Initiation, the Return Party was held with the Sophomores as "guests of honor".

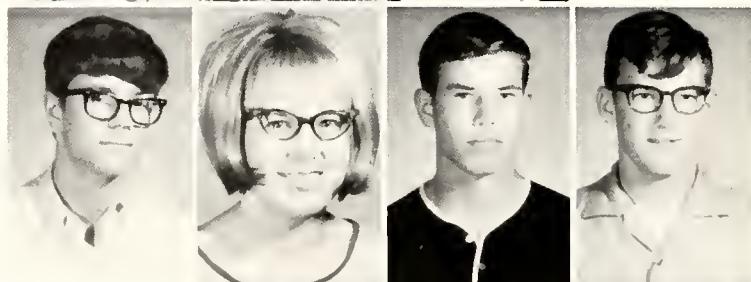

The freshman float in the Homecoming parade was entitled "If the Greeks can do it, The Tigers can". The class prepared a skit for Stunt Night entitled "Behind the Curtains in Commercials".

"What do you mean, this is the wrong cheering section?"

The Sophomore class started out the year of 1966-67 by initiating the Freshman class. They were under the able leadership of Roger Tofslie-president, Bob Kampvice president, Marilyn Mulder-secretary, and Sue Townsend-treasurer.

Following initiation, work began on a homecoming float. Their float, with the "Wizard of Oz" as a theme, won second place; and Doris McElwee represented the class at the homecoming dance. In Stunt Night, "Our Visit to the LBJ Ranch" won third place.

In the spring, the Sophomores held several money-making projects in preparation for their Junior year, which they were looking forward to very much.

The Junior Class of 1967 began early in the year raising the funds which are so essential in financing all of their activities. Two bake sales were held in the summer. The selling of hot dogs at football games was initiated as a Junior money-making project.

The Junior Play this year was entitled "It Is Cold In Them-Thar Hills". The Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom were held for the first time at the Bozeman Hotel. Music for the prom was furnished by the Pink Panthers.

With all the money-making projects a success, the Junior Class was quite prepared for their on-coming Senior year.

The school year of 1966-67 was filled with activities for the Seniors. The yearbook took time and effort, but it was a joy to work on. Many memories were acquired working on their class play, "Twelve Angry Jurors". The Senior Sneak Trip was financed by the funds gained through the intramural basketball tournament.

Always looking ahead to baccalaureate, May 28, and graduation, May 29, the Seniors also reviewed their years spent at Manhattan High School with fond remembrances.

EDITORS' MESSAGE

David Kelso

Elaine Skinner

The 1967 "Tiger" is our guide to the many memories we have gathered throughout the past school year at MHS. We, along with the rest of the annual staff of 1967, sincerely hope that we have reflected upon the activities and accomplishments of the past year in school.

This job couldn't have been accomplished by any one individual effort; it was a combination of many efforts. We especially wish to thank Mrs. Waters, our advisor, for her guidance and motivation toward producing this 1967 "Tiger".

Thank you,

David Kelso
